"I Love it When a Plan Comes Together"

You may or may not be a fan of the '80's TV series The A-Team, but you probably know the famous catchphrase from the show. It was used frequently throughout the show's five-season run from 1983 to 1986 by the team's cigar-chomping leader, Colonel John "Hannibal" Smith, played by actor George Peppard.

Here's a view from the Paladino Garden at the Washington Pavilion across the street.

We've been fortunate to have our own "A-Team" helping make this project a success.
